

Travel Leap

CONSCIOUS TRAVEL CONTENT, PHOTOGRAPHY & FILM

JANUARY 2019

A TRAVELLING CREATIVE HUB.

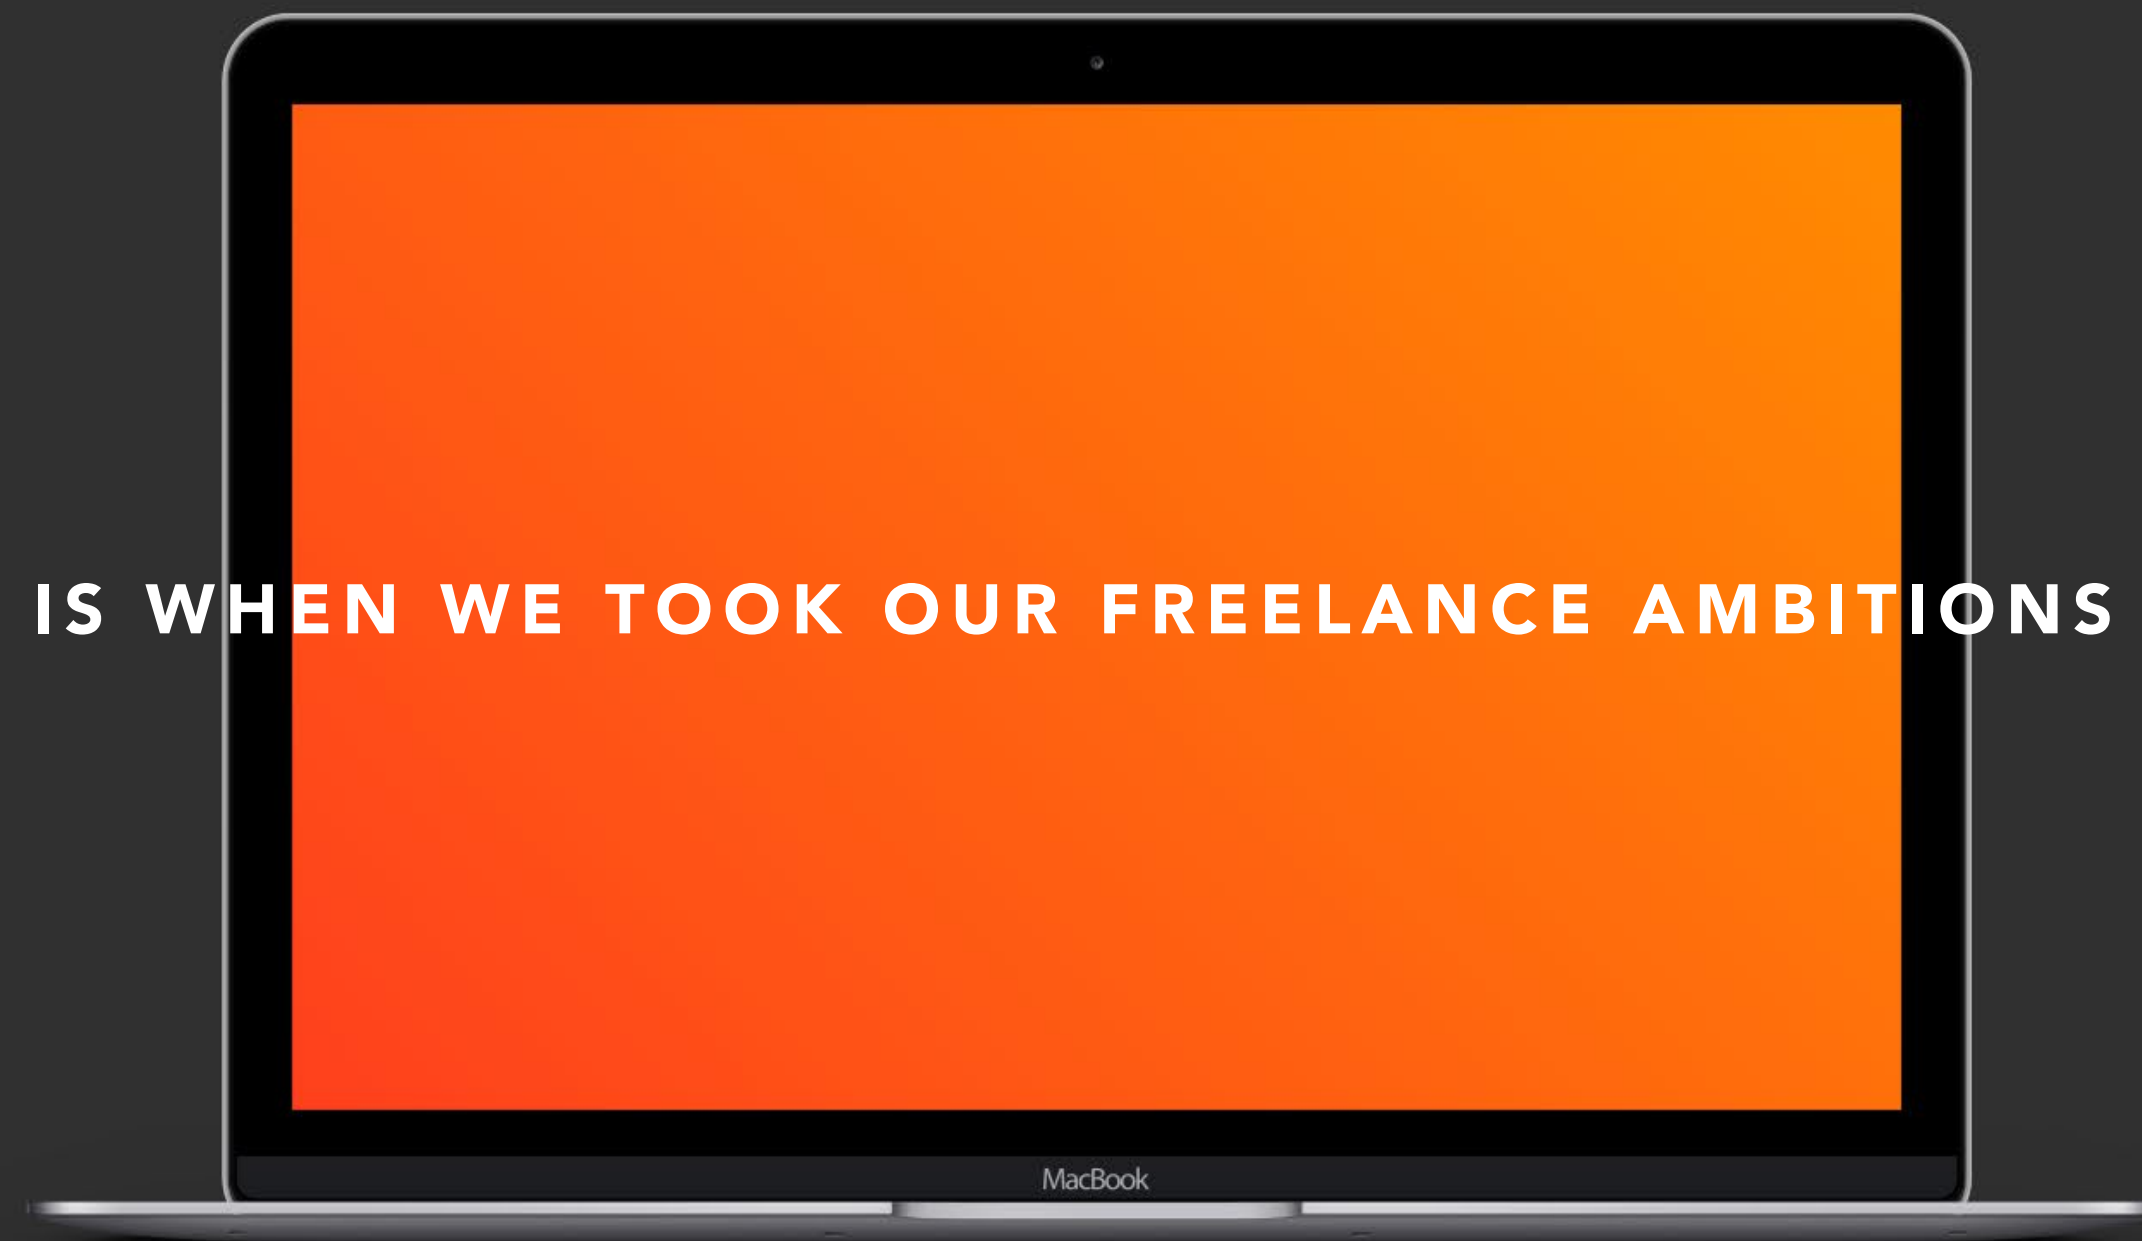

Travel Leap is a curated travel hub where every traveler, adventure seeker and wanderer can find inspiration to travel more and travel better.

It is a place for travelers to be inspired and for brands to inspire. Travel Leap creates travel-guide style content, journalism, photography and film based on our adventures around the world.

Having experienced some polluted places throughout our travels we also aim to promote a more sustainable way of seeing our planet.

We want to share your brand with our highly engaged audience (12,4% avg. engagement rate) through beautifully curated content that will stand out from the crowd.

MARCH 2018 IS WHEN WE TOOK OUR FREELANCE AMBITIONS ON THE ROAD

WHO.

ANASTASIA

A traveller by heart and a marketer by trade. I worked as a brand and digital manager for 10 years, across various global brands (Axe, Omo, Actimel) and for some of the biggest companies all over the world (Unilever, Danone), including Italy, US, South Africa, UK and France. My restless adventurer soul made me trade a sedentary life for one on the road, with the aim to take my craft and ideas everywhere I go through Travel Leap.

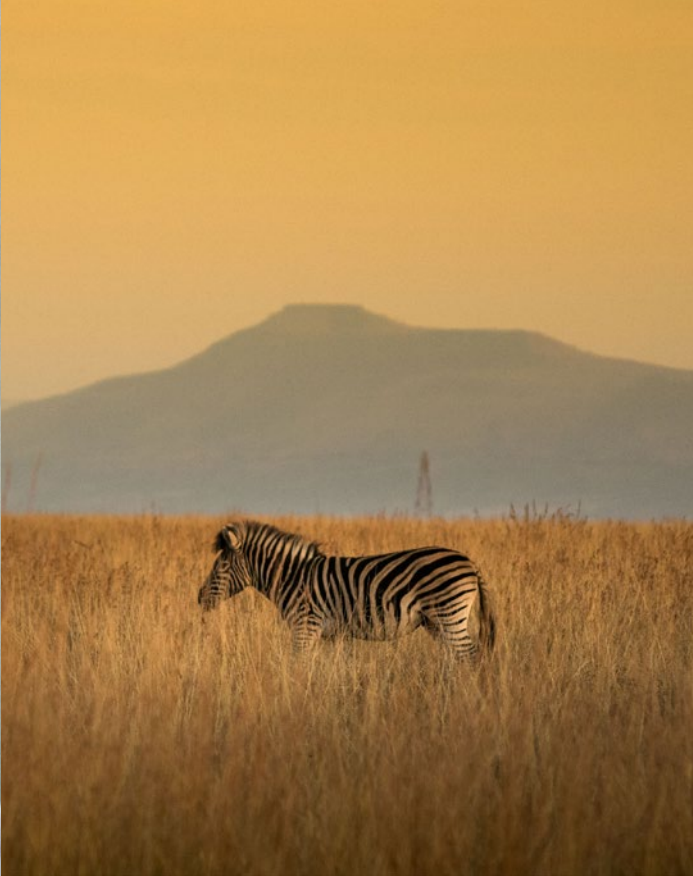

JEAN-PIERRE

I have worked in the creative industry in a designer-art director role for around eight years in three different countries; South Africa, UK and France. Having worked in both permanent and freelance positions, I feel naturally drawn the latter as it allows the adventurous side of my spirit to move freely. Taking my career on the road together with Asja and creating something new, a way to move and work seamlessly.
